

Debbie LoPriore

Debbie LoPriore is the wife of Pastor Sal LoPriore and co-founder of Grand Vista Ministries, Inc., a teaching and community service ministry that is active in both Sag Harbor, NY and Port Charlotte, FL.

Her business background includes various work in the computer, health and retail fields, as well as extensive administrative and accounting duties for the family business.

Her activities at her home church include the formation of the weekly women's prayer group and helping to organize the yearly Vacation Bible School, where she acts as a teaching mother.

Her role in Grand Vista Ministries has led her to create women's bible studies, conferences and special events in NY and FL

God has touched her heart with participation in the Restoration Roads projects and she has become an active member of the governing board.